Welcome – Keith Dudenhoeffer, DIFP

Consumer Protection – Tom Durkin, Public Education Director, AGs Office

Tom Durkin spoke with us about how consumers can protect themselves from scams/fraud that could potentially cost hundreds of thousands of dollars. Mr. Durkin also spoke with us regarding the dangers of social media and the impact it can have on all ages if not used correctly. Mr. Durkin handed out pamphlets that gave us information from how report a scam/fraud, internet privacy, protects our children to landlord-tenant laws.

Accounting – Libbie Farrell let us know that we need to look at our suspense files and update name changes and delete old transactions.

OA Personnel – Guy Krause gave comprehensive update on the Recruitment and Retention meetings.

Open Discussion Keith Dudenhoeffer spoke to the importance of finding new SHRMC chairs for next year.
